An oldie from the 1960s

10th February, 2020

Please enjoy an oldie ("an old popular song") from the 1960s about Hong Kong.

This song is called "Kowloon, Hong Kong". It is sung by a band called the Reynettes. Enjoy the old Hong Kong photos in the video and listen to the lyrics carefully.

Kowloon Hong Kong

*Kowloon, Kowloon Hong Kong
We like Hong Kong
That's the place for you*

*Kowloon, Kowloon Hong Kong
We like Hong Kong
That's the place for you*

*Walking down the street full of joy
Come here come here richshaw boy
Take me down the street Chop Chop Chop
A Habba Habba Joe Ding How Ding How*

*Kowloon, Kowloon Hong Kong
We like Hong Kong*

That's the place for you

Kowloon, Kowloon Hong Kong

We like Hong Kong

That's the place for you

Kowloon, Kowloon Hong Kong

We like Hong Kong

That's the place for you

Walking down the street full of joy

Come here come here richshaw boy

Take me down the street Chop Chop Chop

A Habba Habba Joe Ding How Ding How

Kowloon, Kowloon Hong Kong

We like Hong Kong

That's the place for you

I hear the bells go Ding Dong

Deep down inside my heart

Each time you say kiss me

Then I know it's time for Ding Dong to start

Each time you say hug me Ding Dong Ding Dong

Each time you say love me Ding Dong Ding Dong

I hope I won't wait to long

To hear my bells go Ding Dong

To hear my bells go Ding Dong

Kung Hei Kung Hei Fat Choy

Lai See Taw Loy

That's the thing to do

Kung Hei Kung Hei Fat Choy

Taw Ling Oom Oi

That's the thing to do

Walking down the street full of joy

Come here come here richshaw boy

Take me down the street Chop Chop Chop

A Habba Habba Joe Ding How Ding How

Kowloon, Kowloon Hong Kong

We like Hong Kong

That's the place for you

Kowloon, Kowloon Hong Kong
